

Rhode Island Integrated Care Initiative Demonstration
Summary of Changes to the Three-Way Contract CY2022

The three-way contract was updated for CY2022 (effective date 7/1/2022) with the following changes:

- Incorporated changes from previous August 2020 contract amendment, including an update of the new demonstration end date to December 31, 2023. (5.9.1.1)
- Updated assessment and care plan timelines. (section 2.6)
- Added language to ensure the MMP provides information about high-risk members whose assessments indicate a need for long term services and supports (LTSS) to Rhode Island Executive Office of Health & Human Services (EOHHS) for a Medicaid LTSS eligibility assessment and level of care determination. (2.6.10.1)
- Updated continuity of care provisions to clarify that the continuity of care period is 180 days and that the MMP may only transition a member to a network provider before the 180-day period if certain conditions are met. (2.6.13.1.2)
- Updated contract language to reflect recent changes to the Federal Medicare appeals regulations. (Section 2.11)
- Updated rates language to reflect EOHHS changes to the Medicaid component of MMP rates, including rate increases for certain Medicaid providers. (4.3.1.6.2)
- Added language to reflect Rhode Island EOHHS's LTSS Alternative Payment Model pilot program. (1.74)
- Made revisions to encounter data reporting requirements. (section 2.16)
