

NORMAL

OSTEOPOROSIS

The inside of a bone looks similar to a honeycomb. When someone has osteoporosis, their bones become weaker as the “walls” of the honeycomb get smaller. The spaces between the bone grow larger, and the outer shell of the bone also gets thinner. This all works together to weaken the bone.